

PREFACE

Maulana Abul Kalam Azad Arabic Persian Research Institute, Rajasthan, Tonk is quenching the thirst of the researchers throughout the world like an oasis in the desert of Rajasthan. The beautiful building of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad Arabic and Persian Research Institute Rajasthan, Tonk is situated in the valley of two historical hills of Rasiya and Annapoorna. The Institute is installed with district head quarters at Tonk state Rajasthan in India.

An abode of knowledge, the Institute has a collection of 8,598 manuscripts, 233 Xeroxed Manuscripts, 35 Transcribed Manuscripts, 936 Microfilmed Manuscripts, 18 Musawwidat, Mubayyazat, 31,659 Printed Books, 722 Faramin and Asanid 17,781 Reference Journals (Dar ur Rasail), 783 Calligraphy Panels and Artifacts, 12 Katbat and 65,000 judgement files of the Shariat Records of the erstwhile Tonk State in addition to the historical documents belonging to the old Munshi Khana Huzuri of the said State alongwith Asnad, Tughrajat and the exhibits of decorative calligraphic art.

This literary treasure of Arabic and Persian as well as Urdu belongs to the 5th century of the Hijra and onwards. It consists of the original works including edited and translated manuscripts and publications on more than 50 different subjects specifically holy Qur'an, Hadis, Fiqh, Tasawwuf, Philosophy, Sirat, History, Geography, Medicines, Astrology, Astronomy, Chemistry, Zoology, Botany, Geometry, Arithmetic, Literature and Malfuzat (writings) of the holy Saints etc. Besides these subjects, the Institute owns the Persian & Urdu translations of the works of Hindu Religion from Sanskrit origin as the translation of Ramayana, Mahabharat, Bhagwad Geeta, Pothi Rohini, Naldamana, Lilawati etc. but the script of these works is of Persian as Emperor Akbar the great got these Sanskrit works of Hindu religion translated into Persian by his order in his reign.

The 50 scholars, benefitted by the source materials preserved here, have received Ph.D. degree by the different universities while 35 research scholars are getting advantage.

In such a short span of time the institute has released 104 publications e.g. 12 Catalogues, 27 Research Journals, 20 Translation Works and 45 Other publications out of which there are 10 of Hindi, 12 of English, 65 of Urdu, 3 of Arabic, 6 of Persian and 8 Multilingual.

In the current planning of the Institute the digitizing, computerizing and the construction of Baitul Hikmat work is in progress.

The Institute is also aggressive to bring out such highly valuable and unprinted manuscripts that the publication of these manuscripts will highlight the name of the country and will achieve a goal in Arabic, Persian and Urdu world.

The Institute, after noticing the dyre needs of the scholars in various languages, has decided to make a hand list of the rare manuscripts of Arabic, Persian and Urdu, preserved in Rajasthan Maulana Abul Kalam Azad Arabic Persian Research Institute, Tonk, in Hindi, English and Urdu respectively and to get it loaded on institute's website also, to quench the thirst of the concerned scholars from home and abroad.
